DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claim 1, 4, 5, 11, and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Chen et al. (U.S. Patent Number 6,496,979).

For specific rejections of Claims 1, 4, 5, 11, and 12, see the office action mailed on April 18th, 2003 (Note: Claims 1 and 12 are amended, however, the scope of the Claims have not changed).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 2 and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Chen et al. (U.S. Patent Number 6,496,979) in view of Biggs et al. (U.S. Patent Number 5,504,920).

For specific rejections of Claims 2 and 9, see the office action mailed on April 18th, 2003
(Note: Claim 2 is amended, however, the scope of the Claim has not changed).

5. Claims 3 and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Chen et al. (U.S. Patent Number 6,496,979).

For specific rejections of Claims 3 and 10, see the office action mailed on April 18th, 2003 (Note: Claim 3 is amended, however, the scope of the Claim has not changed).

6. Claims 6 and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Chen et al. (U.S. Patent Number 6,496,979) in view of Amberg et al. (U.S. Patent Number 5,963,743).

For specific rejections of Claims 6 and 13, see the office action mailed on April 18th, 2003.

7. Claims 7 and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Chen et al. (U.S. Patent Number 6,496,979) in view of Reha et al. (U.S. Patent Number 6,282,709).

For specific rejections of Claims 7 and 14, see the office action mailed on April 18th, 2003.

Response to Arguments

8. Applicant's arguments filed July 17th, 2003 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Specifically, the applicants argue that Chen reference does not teach "dynamically constructing at least one code bundle from a set of code modules" because several code bundles are packaged before the system parameter is known. However, Chen does teach dynamically bundling a software package after the system type is determined (Column 10, lines 8-19).

Conclusion

9. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
